Alumni Offers One Four-Year UK Scholarship $2800 All Expense Award Is Largest Single Grant

A $2800 four-year, all-expense scholarship, the largest individual academic award offered by the University, has been established by the alumni, according to an announcement from the Alumni Office.

Nearly $1000 has been given by alumni to the "University of Kentucky Loyalty Fund," from which the scholarship fund is to be taken. The drive was initiated in November and will finance other alumni-sponsored charitable projects in the future, in addition to creating scholarships for worthy students.

Alumni To Nominate
The recipient of the award will be selected from candidates nominated by members of the Alumni Association and clubs throughout the country. Nominations are now being accepted, and it is expected that the scholarship will be awarded before the opening of the Fall semester.

Scholastic ability, character, personality, extra-curricular activities, and need, will be the basis for the awarding of the scholarship, alumni officials said. The award may be made to any person providing he or she meets the qualifications and has the sponsorship of an individual member of the Alumni Association or an organized alumni club.

Must Maintain
To retain the scholarship, the recipient must maintain an academic average of 2.0 or above. If the student falls below this average, the scholarship may be withdrawn by the University scholarship committee.

John R. Bullock, Cincinnati attorney, heads the solicitation committee of the campaign, and other committee members are James A. Shropshire, Fayetteville, Miss.; John N. Browning, Marysville, Samuel Manly III, Louisville; and Milton S. Smith and L. Duncan Stokes, both of New York City.

Cash donations received by the fund total $3997.79. It was announced by Miss Helen King, executive secretary of the Alumni Association, and more pledges are on hand. It is planned to continue the campaign through June 30 and to offer another scholarship at a later date if sufficient funds are obtained.

Dairying Students Plan Travel Course In Southern States

A travel course in dairying which will include visits through several southern states has been tentatively planned for early summer.

The trip will be similar to the one taken last year which included visits to eastern states. Students received four hours credit for this course last year.

This year plans have been made for the tour to include visits to experimental stations at Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, and Tennessee. Also included are the dairy science meetings at Athens, Georgia, and a number of commercial dairy herds. The tour will be taken between the close of the Spring quarter and the beginning of the Summer term and will cover 14 to 16 days of travel.

All students interested in taking this course are requested to meet in the Dairy Building, Room 109, at 7 p.m. on February 17.

Education Honorary Election Scheduled

Nu chapter of Delta Pi Epsilon, national honorary fraternity in business education, will hold its annual election of officers and accept recommendations for membership at 4 p.m. Tuesday in room 207 of White Hall.

Z. S. Dickerson Jr., president of the chapter, represented the chapter at the annual convention in Bloomington, Ind. recently. A formal invitation was extended to the national council of the fraternity to hold its meeting here next year.

Artists To Show Exchange Exhibit

The University Art Club will send an exchange art exhibit this week to the club at the University of Alabama. The show consists of 25 prints done by former students in the Art Department.

According to President Leo Zimmerman, the exhibit of work by Alabama students will be on display in the gallery of the department for two more weeks.

Independents Plan Dance

One of the first concrete steps taken by the Association of Independent Students to promote a social program for independent students will be a cabaret style dance in the ballroom of the SUB on Saturday, Feb. 28.

Music will be furnished by Dave Parry and his orchestra, and tickets are on sale at the SUB ticket booth for $1.25 in advance, or for $1.50 at the door, stag or drag.

Ellis Foster, president of the independents, called this the first step in a program for the independent students.

"The success of this dance and program," Foster stated, "will depend upon the cooperation and participation of the independent students. The purpose of the independent organization is to provide a social program for the independents, and to bind independent student opinion into a participating voice in the affairs of the school."

According to Foster, a detailed financial statement will be made public the week after the dance.

The independent organization up to this time, has been very loosely molded, he said. The committee is endeavoring to strengthen it so that it can take its proper place in the life of the campus.

Veterans Club Votes Monday

Only one slate or nominees for officers in the Veterans Club has been received by the Personnel Office. Dr. Lydie Croft, director of the office and faculty advisor to the club, announced today.

The nominations, made by petition, were closed Tuesday afternoon, and the election will be held Monday. The petition, signed by 22 members, nominated a "United Ticket" slate for the eight offices to be filled by the election.

As the club constitution prohibits "write-in" candidates, the election will be a mere formality, Dr. Croft explained.

United Ticket candidates include Sidney Neal, president; Charles Boggs, executive vice-president; for membership: R. Clayton Roland, vice-president for public relations; Mrs. Mary Wild, vice-president; Elbert A. Check, vice-president for business; George C. Sakons, treasurer; Thomas A. Prather, recording secretary; and William P. Jones, corresponding secretary.

The election Monday will be held at a special polling place to be set up in the Student Union Building.

Altitude Record Trial Postponed Till Spring

Raymond Schlachter, student-veteran who last October announced he would attempt to break the world's altitude record for light airplanes, said Thursday he has postponed his try until Spring.

Unfavorable weather, particularly heavy snow on the ground for the past few weeks, caused the postponement, Schlachter said. He was a radar observer with the Army during the war.

All of Schlachter's equipment, including an especially "souped-up" V-8 automobile engine for installation in the low-wing monoplane, arrived shortly before the snow and zero weather, he said. Originally, he had intended to make the record attempt about mid-November, but was delayed by lack of an official National Aeronautics Association barograph for recording the altitude and other equipment.

The present record for light planes is 26,404 feet, established in 1939 at Gotha, Germany.

Schlachter first soared Oct. 25.

FTA Aiding Institutions Outside States

The University chapter of the Future Teachers of America is conducting a program for giving aid to educational institutions in foreign countries.

The organization has recently sent ten or twelve packages of food and educational materials to a secondary school in Baden, Germany, and has contributed to the Overseas Teachers Relief Fund through donations from students.

The FTA, which was reorganized here in November, 1946, has as its purposes academic betterment within the teaching profession, improving class relationship through association, broadening the aspect of the future teachers, and planned social activities for its members.

"Kentucky is now in dire need of 3000 qualified teachers to supplement the shortage that now exists," William E. Vick, president of the chapter stated. Vick asserted that in Kentucky in 1947, 5200 of the 17,700 teachers were holding emergency certificates to teach.

Vick said chapter membership has grown from 24 members to 82 during the past year. He credited the increase to interest created by lectures and discussions by outstanding educators and foreign students, and a planned recreational program that precedes each meeting.

Vick said the chapter helped organize a unit at Transylvania College and an affiliated club at Henry Clay High School. It sponsored "College Day" for Henry Clay senior students to acquaint them with the University.

The FTA meets on the second and fourth Monday night of each month in the University Training School recreation room, and persons interested in teaching are invited to attend meetings.

Faculty advisers for the FTA are Dr. Ellis F. Hartford, Dr. Frank Dickey, Mrs. Carl J. Boone, and Miss Nancy Trollinger. Chapter officers are William E. Vick, president; John A. Wells, vice president; Dorothy Grugin, secretary; and Flen Justice, treasurer.

The chapter was organized by, and is affiliated with, the National Education Association, and is an affiliate of the Kentucky Education Association.

'YM' Honors Indian Leader

Dr. John Kuiper, head of the Department of Philosophy, and the University's Indian students, J. J. Ghia and Jacob John, presented a program at the YMCA meeting last week paying tribute to India's revered leader, the late Mohandas K. Gandhi.

Dr. Kuiper discussed the philosophy of Gandhi and its basis in the Hindu philosophy and religion. He stressed that Gandhi was one of the few great leaders who have sought to carry out their programs through "soul-force" and non-violence rather than by coercion.

He said Gandhi's use of "soul-force" or moral persuasion distinguished him from almost all other great political leaders.

Jacob John, graduate student in public health from Transvancore State in southern India, told about Gandhi's life.

"When Gandhi died," said John, "he was the poorest man in India." He emphasized that while Gandhi collected vast sums of money for charitable purposes, he saved nothing for himself, and was absolutely penniless when he died.

John and J. J. Ghia, an engineering student from Santa Cruz, a suburb of Bombay, agreed in an interview that Gandhi's death made major outbreaks of violence between Moslems and Hindus much more likely. Ghia, who met and talked to Gandhi in 1939, said the Mahatma's influence has in the past prevented civil war.

Both John and Ghia agreed that no one could replace Gandhi as a political and spiritual leader. John expressed the belief that "Gandhi's death was the greatest catastrophe ever experienced by India."

Syed Husain, graduate student in bacteriology from the Moslem State of Hyderabad, said that since a man of Gandhi's own faith had shot him, it would take some time for a reaction of violence to set in.

WSSF Drive Begins Here This Week

The drive to raise $5555.55 for the World Student Service Fund began this week with solicitations being made in various residence halls.

Harold Friedly, chairman of the drive, said interest in this year's campaign is high. He said the group sought support "of university people on the basis of their interest in the survival of university life throughout the world."

Last year students and staff contributed $2275 to the national campaign which was supported by nearly a thousand American colleges and universities.

As a starter for the fund, members of the all-campus committee contributed more than $75 toward the goal, Friedly said.

"Operations University" as the drive is known, got underway last week with a meeting of leaders from campus, social, religious and academic groups. It ends with special activities and publicity during the week beginning March 1.

Gene Deskins, in charge of solicitations, announced the division of leadership on his committee. Foreign students are participating as speakers for the drive. Sebastian Jan Goudover, Holland, and a charge of speakers committee, Jacob John, India, is head of the special project committee for India. Other members of the All-Campus Group are: Charles Boggs, chairman of publicity; Claude Spowels, radio publicity; Ralph Summa, posters; Myron Pinkstein, Pat Evans and George Martin, special publicity; and Rosemary Dummil, foreign correspondence.

SGA To Consider Bill For New Method Of Filling Vacancies

A Student Government Association bill proposing a new method of filling assembly vacancies, created by resignations or removals, was referred to the Judiciary committee for action at SGA meeting Monday night.

The bill, intended to replace the method of nominating on a party basis, would have the deans of the colleges submit lists of five students eligible for each office, inform the candidates of their nomination, and instruct them to appear at the next SGA meeting, where they would be discussed and voted upon.

A resolution to affiliate with the National Student Association was referred to a committee headed by Harry Miller and composed of Assemblymen Dosker, Foster, Russell, Deiss, Welch, and Cox for preparation.

A proposed law, making it unlawful to smoke in any of the non-fire-resistant buildings or in any of the temporary frame classroom buildings, was referred to the Fire Prevention Committee.

Claude Sprowls, president, closed the meeting with the announcement that SGA will prepare a statement and budget for publication in the Kentucky Kernel. "Students have the right to know where their money is going," Sprowls said.

Designed with the aid of Prof. Raymond C. Barnhart of the art department, a new University seal has been accepted by the board of trustees.

The seal, already in use, is similar to Kentucky's official seal and gives the date of the University's founding and the motto, "United we stand, divided we fall."

"The new seal was created to replace old hit and miss designs which are inaccurate and now illegible," Dr. Leo M. Chamberlain, vice president of the University, said.

Housing Still Problem

The housing situation for married veteran students continues to be a major problem of the University.

Dean A. D. Kirwan's office has announced that placing of veterans and their families in Cooperstown and Shawneetown is now 14 months behind schedule, and the situation may become worse.

There are now 469 names on the waiting list for the 435 occupied units in the two "veterans' towns." An additional 18 units in Shawneetown will be ready for occupancy soon, Dean Kirwan said.

Scott To Be Guest Artist

Tom Scott, former University music student and a native Kentuckian, will be the guest artist on the Sunday Afternoon Musicale program at 4 p.m. Sunday in Memorial Hall.

The program will be the last by a visiting artist on the current series of musicales, said Dr. Alexander A. Capurso, head of the University Department of Music. Remaining recitals will be given by members and students of the music department. The women's glee club will present next Sunday's program.

Scott, who studied voice, composition, and piano here and at the Louisville Conservatory of Music, has been acclaimed by audiences and critics throughout the country as one of America's foremost interpreters of native American folk music.

A reception honoring Mr. Scott will be held in the Music Room of the Student Union immediately following his recital. It is sponsored by Phi Beta and Phi Mu Alpha, honorary-professional music fraternities, and will be open to the public.

Vets Should Check On Tuition Charges

Due to the fact that a large number of educational institutions have increased their tuition rates, many veterans may find that their total eligibility time for study under the G.I. Bill will be decreased if the tuition and other appropriate charges of the school exceed $500 for an academic year.

Veterans Administration Thursday emphasized that for each $2.10 which is expended for a veteran in excess of the $500 limit, the veteran exhausts one day's eligibility time. VA also pointed out that subsistence allowances do not increase despite tuition costs in excess of $500 an academic year.

Further, VA will not increase the subsistence allowance for a veteran who acquires dependency status until the time he actually notifies the VA. In other words, if a veteran marries, thereby becoming eligible for increased subsistence allowances, and fails to notify VA until five months later, this increased subsistence allowance will not be retroactive to the date of marriage but only to the date notification was filed with VA.

Q. Will VA pay tuition for a veteran to attend school while he is taking on-job training under the G.I. Bill?

A. Yes. VA will pay for such schooling if his course of study is related to the job for which he is training, or if the school course is prescribed and recommended as a part of his job-training.

Two UK Electricians Save Capurso Steps By Installing System

The Department of Music, though in temporary quarters, can boast of one of the best inter-office communication systems on the campus because of the ingenuity of two men in the University electric service department.

Mr. Elmer Morgan and Mr. Roy Turpin have made it possible for Dr. Alexander A. Capurso, department offices and studios under his supervision without leaving his desk. To do this they installed war surplus telephones, connecting wires and push buttons to be operated through a control station received from the Western Electric Company. The control station, an item of the company's College Gift Equipment, was installed in the main office.

This station makes it possible for simultaneous conversations to take place between pairs of stations outside the main office.

O. L. McElroy, '27, of Eminence, was a visitor in Lexington Monday, and attended the monthly meeting of the Alumni executive committee at the Lafayette hotel. Mr. McElroy is alumni contact man in Henry County.

Out-of-town members of the executive committee of the Alumni Association present at the monthly meeting Monday night were: Grover H. Creech and Sam Manly, III, Louisville; H. D. Palmore and T. H. Zittler, Frankfort; Robert H. Hillenmeyer, Cincinnati; G. Lee McClain, Bardonia.

Dr. T. D. Clark, '29, head of the Department of History, will address the Alumni Club of Greater Cincinnati Thursday, Feb. 25. Dr. Clark will discuss the historical collection at the University Library and will point out to Cincinnati club members the way they can assist in adding material to this collection.

The time and place of the meeting will be announced in a later edition of the Kernel. Arthur F. Vogelmann, '46, Park Hills, Ky., is chairman of the program committee for the Cincinnati club.

Bubble Screen Used To Protect US Subs

LOS ANGELES (U.P.)—An underwater "screen" of air bubbles kept a zone quiet around a dock used for sound experiments at Pearl Harbor when that port was at its noisiest wartime peak, scientists revealed at a meeting of the Acoustical Society of America.

Details of the ingenious device were told by representatives of the Navy and the Western Electric Co.

The Navy developed the screen to carry on noise-reduction experiments on U. S. submarines, to make them less detectable. A pipe was installed across the bottom of the open end of a floating repair dock, letting a screen of air bubbles flow to the surface.

This barrier was comparatively easy to install, did not interfere with submarines entering or leaving, and kept out ocean surface oil as well as low and high frequency noises.

After Thought:

Nurse: "You wish to see the student injured in the auto wreck last night?"

Coed: "Yes, it's only fair to give him the kiss he tried so hard to get."

Cat Clippings

By Tom Diskin

Younghol Emmett Lowery, the new head coach of the Tennessee basketball team, will make his first appearance in Alumni gym tomorrow when his Volunteers meet the UK Wildcats. We hope these two Kentucky basketball teams will give us a nice warm reunion for Coach Lowery was quite successful in the Vols' 13-6 win over the UK eleven last fall on Still Field.

Lowery is one of the most complete thorough and perfect jobs of coaching against Kentucky that I've ever seen. As what Head Football Coach Tom Land said of him at a press conference after the Tennessee game was finished.

Before coming to the Orange and White, Lowery served as assistant coach and basketball coach at Purdue University of Lafayette, Ind.

Next week the intramural basketball team will take much of the UK sports spotlight. The climactic tournament for the 42-team 121 program is now underway, and the championship game is slated to be played on Saturday in Alumni gym—immediately preceding the UK-Groves Tech fracas.

In the independent division four teams have been outstanding—Kappa Delta, Phi Kappa Phi, Delta Chi, and Beta Beta Beta. The last three mentioned are one of the Wildcat football players. In the fraternity bracket, SAE and Sigma Chi are the powerhouses as was the case last season.

A breakdown of the teams follows: The K CLUB—has a record of 7 wins, no losses, and a 47-point-per-game average. Top players on the squad are Lee Truiman, Shorty Jamerson, Dick Martin, Ben Zarnika, George Blanda and Bill Bol-

Introducing . . .
'Lefty' Jim Line

By Stan Schill

Jim Line is neither All-American nor All-Conference, but he is all "Wildcat," and he knows how to use his claws to best advantage.

Last year this 185 pound, 6 foot inch sophomore hit 86 of 209 tries, which gave him an average of 41.1. This season he's moving along at approximately a 38.2 clip.

Basketball isn't the only accomplishment this 21-year-old Army veteran can brag of. His scholastic average is hovering somewhere around the 2.8 mark, and his major is chemical engineering! It really takes a good man to play ball on the road as much as the "Rambler" have, and still keep up an average like that.

Line is one basketball player who rarely, if ever, seems to go stale. He's constantly improving. On his favorite shot, he pauses a split second, cocks that left arm, and lets fly—for two more points.

Jim hails from Akron, Ohio, where he played ball for North high school. Shortly after graduation, he was inducted into the Army and during the war served in the U. S. Cavalry in the ETO.

Jim Line is more than just a good ball player. He's a steady dependable boy who can be counted on to make the scoreboard light up soon after he enters the game.

As one fan said during the last Cincinnati tilt here in Alumni Gym, when Line's on the floor, the scoreboard looks like a pin-ball machine during one of those all too rare streaks of good luck.

In the game against Texas A&M last season, Line hit eight field goals in 16 tosses to take the scoring honors for that game—hitting 50% of his shots.

Line has scored 327 points in 7 games.

JEWELL HALL—probably the most colorful team in the tournament. Has a 7-0 record and a 45-point-per-game mark. Scored 70 tallies in one contest. Squad: Jim Stephens, coach and center, Nick Wanehe, Jerry Claiborne, Nick Odiljak, and Bobby Brooks, with Paul "Ears" Young serving as assistant coach, cheerleader, trainer, and reserve player.

KINCAID HALL—a real dark horse in the tourney. Doc Wall's team holds a 6-0 record and a 42-point-per-game average. Has strong reserve strength. Fred Pittard, Henry Ellis, Red Nichol, Bill Zoellers and Milman pace the attack, with Don "Dokey" Phelps, Shelton, Fraiman and Warner completing the squad.

PATT HALL—a 43-point average for each scrap and an over-all mark of 6-1. Their only defeat was by the "K" Club, 43-38. Made up of Bill Leskovar, Al Bruno, Wanne-maker, Wodke, Saylor, Yowarsky and Vance.

Fraternity Group
SIGMA CHI—has taken five straight wins without a defeat. In four games they have scored 130 points for a 32-point average. The fifth contest was won via a forfeit. Willie Allen, Fowler, Pannell, Hackett and Jay Cummins are the outstanding players. Started off slowly, but will probably be hot for the elimination play-offs. They have height and speed.

SAE—scored 182 tallies in their six victorious games, for a 30-point-per-game mark. Despite a close three-point win over DTD, the SAE quintet looked better consistently during the regular play than any other frat aggregation. Leading scorers are Johnny Lewis, Doc Ferrell, John Crockett and Cowgill.

Phi Delta Theta, Delta Chi, Phi Sigma Kappa and Lambda Chi Alpha—all with 4 wins—as against one loss—have the best chance to knock off SAE and Sigma Chi in the fraternity play-offs.

Professor Pop-Quiz: "Life is a series of surprises!"

Jim Line

Line has quite a bit of competition up in that part of the court where he hangs out. For company he has Walt Jones, Cliff Barker, and Joe Holland. That's pretty stiff competition for any starting berth on any team. But even with that, the "man in the brown suit" is having trouble keeping this Cat on the bench. He just don't wanna stay put!

When Jim Line gets out on a basketball court, things start to happen. He plays ball like the fans enjoy seeing it played. He's become a master at Rupp's fast break.

Watch this boy. He'll be wearing the blue and white for another couple of years, and will be featured wherever Rupp's Roteers appear.

Three Independents, Two Frats
Undeclared In I-M Basketball

By Allen Terhune

The weather isn't the only thing that's breaking and Bill McCubbin, intramural director, can vouch for that since he has just completed the pairings for the intramural elimination tournament.

Thursday night was the hardwood debut of the first round contestants headed by eight independent and eight fraternity teams vying for their respective championship trophies.

At the end of the round-robin play, the Independents boasted three undefeated teams, Jewell Hall, the "K" Club, and Kincaid Hall. These three and the Pat Hall aggregation were seeded in the twelve team independent tournament.

On the frat docket it was discovered that at the end of the first round; only two teams had survived with clean slates. They were the SX's and the SAE's and were seeded accordingly.

The initial round of the independent division placed Kincaid Hall against the Rose Street Bricks. The Jammers slated to play the Dragons, Bradley Hall scheduled for the Atomies and the Turtles paired with Pat Hall.

The first round also finds the Deltas playing the Phi Taus, Delta Chi pitted against the ATO's, Lambda Chi Alpha competing with the PKA's and the Kappa Sigs billed with the Phi Sigs.

Kenneled in the second round and stacked against each other are the Sigma Chis and Phi Taus, SPE and SAE teams, in the fraternity division. In the independent group these seeded the second round are Jewell Hall and the Crumbs, and the Hoodlums and the "K" club.

Bill McCubbin has big things planned to decide the true university championship and according to his arrangements every thing will go like clock work.

It seems that both the winner and runner-up of the fraternity and independent tournaments will compete in a third tournament. The winner of the fraternity championship will play the runner-up of the independent affair and the champion independent quintet will play the runner-up fraternity team. Then these two winners will meet to determine the university championship basketball team.

Bowling

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the doors close on entering teams in the bowling tournament which gets underway Monday afternoon at 4.

All games will be played at the Colonial Lanes, it was reported.

The intramural wrestling deadline has been set as Feb. 20, the intramural office announced.

It was suggested that all men who plan to enter the tournament begin working out in the basement of the gym where mats have been placed for that purpose. Mr. McCubbin said that he will be available in the afternoon to give wrestling instruction to anyone who needs it.

Also scheduled February 20 is the basketball tourney which swings to the court February 23.

It was asked by the intramural office that all intramural managers stop by the office and give the names of the men who have participated in intramural games this year. It was further pointed out that this should be done as soon as possible.

WAA NEWS...

By Em Asbury

The inter-sorority basketball tournament, which began on the hardwood of the women's gym last Monday, moved into the second week of play with all teams seeing action.

Four teams have scored decisive wins in their first games. The Kappa Delta's, in keeping with the weather, completely snowed under the TAPI's by a 53-5 score. Led by senior forward, Ruth Wilde, who iced away 31 very hot points, the KD's scored early and often.

Sparked by Charlotte Knapp, the "kite-pin" girls from the Kappa Alpha Theta house soundly trounced the Alpha Xi six 25-5.

In a sharply contested game, the Chi O's sneaked by the ADPI's 9-8. Largely responsible for her team's fine showing, was Marjorie Burton, a holdover star from last year's Chi Omega team.

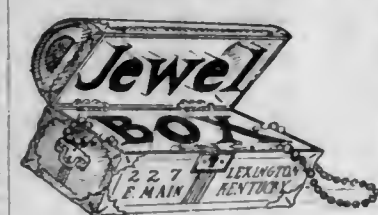

The Kappa's took it on the chin twice, being drubbed by the ADPI's 16-14, and the Chi O's 6-3.

In two of the closing games, the Tri-Delta's slipped by the fighting Alpha Gam's 20-19, while the Theta's were annexing their second win, defeating the ZTA's 21-13.

A table tennis tournament is being organized, according to Miss Marjorie Murray. Any individual who wishes to enter must sign with her by Monday, February 16.

HALYARD'S SPORT SIDE SHOW

Featuring Today —
New Tournament May Produce
University Champ Instead Of Champ

The recent decision to put the Independent champ and runner-up, and the Fraternity winner and second place team in a tournament to determine the University Intramural Basketball Championship is one of the latest steps and biggest advances taken in the post war Intramural program.

Intramural participation has undoubtedly hit its greatest stride lately. Never before in the University history has there been so great an interest displayed in intramural play as in the last year and a half or two years. Both spectator interest and actual participation have grown tremendously.

This enthusiasm is due partially to two things. One is the better competition offered, and the other is the larger enrollment in school.

The big increase in interest comes in the Independent ranks. For with the large enrollment, the Independent organizations can still find enough boys to field teams after the Frats have latched on to those they want.

Now this strong Independent interest is new, but with the probable large enrollments that are due for a number of years, it shouldn't be ignored. It will be potential and should be encouraged by giving the Independent teams a fair crack at open competition. The Fraternities have always had a strong interest in the intramural program, and always will have long after the large enrollments have come and gone, because there will always be that old inter-frat competition.

For the round robin play the teams were divided into two groups of three division each with the Frats playing just Frats, and the Independent squads competing among themselves.

Elimination tournaments in each group are being held now to determine a champ for the Frats and a champ among Independents.

In the past the University champ has been determined in a game matching the two groups. However, when one group is stronger than the other this method isn't a fair means of choosing.

It is possible that two Independent teams should participate in the University championship game, or perhaps the Frats have the two strongest teams in the entire competition. Then they should meet for the championship.

This new plan will put the Independent champ against the Frat runner-up, and the Frat winner against the Independent runner-up in the final round. Then the two winners will play for the University championship.

While this makes it necessary to extend play another night for the finals, it affords either group which might be stronger fairer representation and comes closer to selecting the real champs.

Cats Invade South; Trounce Bama, Washington and Vandy

By Kent Hollingsworth

The University of Kentucky Wildcats, squirming back from the Notre Dame wound, sailed through the Southland last week cutting down three victims. Two of them Southeastern Conference foes.

The traveling, net sizzling Wildcats eased one bus-hopping day and a berth-switching night into Tuscaloosa, Alabama, only a few hours before their scheduled contest with the Crimson Tide.

Alabama, second in the nation, defensively, held the travel-weary Cats to an almost unbelievable half-time lead of 17 to 15.

It was so unbelievable, that here at home when Lewis Saxon, MC of the All-Campus Sing, announced the score at halftime many persons in Memorial Hall audibly believed Mr. Saxon to be a regular joker.

However, fiery Ralph Beard came back strong in the last half to lead the Wildcats to a 41-22 victory, by dumping in 16 points Joe Holland, after spending the night in the infirmary after the Notre Dame trip played one of the finest games of the season, and was rewarded by a starting position in the Washington U. game.

S.E.C. Competition Scheduled For Wildcats' Final Home Stand

By Tom Diskin

Making their first appearance in Alumni gym in three weeks, the Kentucky Zip Kids meet Tennessee tomorrow night as the 1947-48 basketball season turns into the home stretch. Then on Monday evening, the Alabama Crimson Tide eagles will invade the Wildcat lair for their second meeting with the Kentucky five in less than two weeks.

After these contests, only Vanderbilt, Georgia Tech, Temple and Xavier remain on the regular season schedule for the UK Kats.

The following student tickets will be good for the remaining home games.

Date	Team	No.
Feb. 14	Tennessee	18
Feb. 16	Alabama	19
Feb. 20	Vanderbilt	20
Feb. 21	Georgia Tech	21

Tennessee Has A 15-3 Mark

The Tennessee Volunteers, who were whipped 65-54 by UK last month in Knoxville, has compiled a record of 15 victories this season, with losses only to Kentucky, North Carolina, and Miami of Ohio. In their last start the Orange and White trimmed Georgia 69-60, for their seventh conference win of the season as against one defeat. Previously, the Vols defeated Alabama, 47-35, to show surprising offensive strength.

Captain Marshall Hawkins and Paul Walther, both forwards, are Coach Emmett Lowery's leading scorers for the current campaign. Each has an average of over 12 points per game. Hawkins, who scored 19 tallies against UK last January, stands 6'3", weighs 210 pounds, and hails from Huntington, W.Va., while Paul Walther, of Covington, is 6'2" tall and weighs 150 pounds. The lanky left hander from Northern Kentucky earned All-American honors at UT in 1945 and played for a short time during the war with Auburn with the Navy V-12 program. He scored nine against UK in their first meeting of this season.

Other starters for the Orange-men are Art Burris, a 6'5" center from Nashville, Guard Ed (Britches) Montgomery, a 21-year-old eager who stands 5'11" and is from Knoxville, and Hugh Jones, the older brother of UK's Wah Wah. Hugh, who at an even six feet, is four inches shorter than Wah, scored 11 points against the Wildcats in the last meeting. This fracas will be only the fourth time that the Jones boys have played against each other. Against the Vols, Alex Groza was high with 16, while Ralph Beard and Wah had 11 markers each.

Jack Thomas, a guard, is likely to see much action against UK for the Knoxville-ans. Other players are Forwards Don Graham, Jim Flynn, Eldridge, Center Hank Kinzel, and Guards Bill Byrd and Jay Center.

WHY I smoke Chesterfield

(FROM A SERIES OF STATEMENTS BY PROMINENT TOBACCO FARMERS)

"When I bring my tobacco to market I'm always looking for the Liggett & Myers buyers because I know when I've got real good mild, ripe sweet tobacco they'll pay the top dollar for it."

"I've been smoking Chesterfields for about 25 years. I like their taste and I know the kind of tobacco that's in them."
